

Youth Empowerment Scholarship (Financial Aid) Programme 2019 – 2020

Renaissance College's Youth Empowerment Scholarship (Financial Aid) Programme is set up to support deserving and financially needy children in Hong Kong. The assistance is provided with 100 percent tuition fees. The award is based on the financial need of an applicant, therefore a full disclosure of the applicant's financial background is required to allow the College assess the situation and allocate funds responsibly.

Eligibility Criteria

- Students who are not currently enrolled at RCHK
- Students who have received the Offering Letter issued by the school's Admissions Department
- Civil Servants who have applied for the Local Education Allowance can also apply for YES programme
- Applicant who are in receipt of Comprehensive Social Security Assistance can also apply

Application Procedure

- Applications must be made by the students' parent or his/her legal guardian
- Only one application from per family is needed
- The COMPLETED application form and supporting documents (please refer to "Documents Checklist" for details) must be submitted to the Renaissance College Scholarships Manager by mail or delivered by hand. No facsimiles are accepted and applications are not processed until all the necessary information and required supporting documents are received
- The College reserves the right to verify the information provided by the applicant in support of the application. If necessary, home visit or an interview with the applicant in person may be conducted
- There is NO deadline for receipt of application forms and documents for YES applicants. Fully completed applications are considered and evaluated on a need basis throughout the academic year, provided that the College has places available.

Method of Assessment

- All applicants are subject to income assessment. The Family Household Income includes worldwide income from all sources, such as:
 - Income from employment (including salaries, bonuses, education allowances, and housing allowances);
 - Income from investments (including interest and dividends);
 - Income from rental properties;
 - Income from business profits (or share of profits); and
 - Income from other sources (including alimony payments, trust fund payments, pension payments, and cash receipts from relatives)
- Applicants are to give full disclosure of all assets owned by the family household including:
 - Bank deposits (including both local and off-shore accounts);
 - All properties owned (including family residence and rental properties, local and overseas);
 - Stocks, bonds, mutual funds, saving plans, and any other alternative investments; and
 - Vehicles and valuable antiques
- The family's principal residence is not counted as an asset. Therefore, the family's disposable income would exclude the cost of rental or the amount of mortgage payment of the principal family residence.
- Family members are defined as the applicant, his/her spouse, unmarried child(ren) and parents of the applicant and his/her spouse.
- If the unmarried child(ren) and / or other family members (living in the same principal residence for at least 6 months) of the applicant and his/her spouse reside with the family, 40% of their annual income, if applicable, will be calculated as part of the gross annual family income.
- Where the applicant and his/her spouse have assets (excluding the value of the family's principal family residence but including other properties, net of related outstanding mortgages) in excess of HK$500,000, the amount of family income is deemed to be increased by an amount equivalent to 10% of the value of assets in excess of HK$500,000.
